

Activity: Two truths and a lie

Pathway:	Speech to Perform
Assessment Section:	Section 3: Performing a Self-Composition
Activity aim:	This activity is all about getting students into the habit of presenting a fictional narrative about oneself in a convincing way. It is a fun activity which helps students get to know each other better, while at the same, developing their composing and persuasive speaking skills.
Time:	10-15 minutes
Delivery:	A pupil will share 3 facts about themselves, but 2 of them need to be true and one of them needs to be a lie. The other students must guess which is the lie. This game may be played in a circle or in small groups / pairs. 